

MINERALLAC RESPONSE

We placed several of our container and mill orders in September and got them out, so they are either here on the US mainland or on the water. The only issue we might see is if this persists two months out, it could affect the hex nuts, washers and bolts but we do have domestic sources, so we feel quite confident in our position right now.